

Privacy Policy

The MVCA is committed to preserving your privacy when you visit our site. Our policy is to collect no personal information about you when you visit our site, unless you choose to make such information available to us. If you choose to share information with us by filling out an electronic form with personal information or sending us a message, the information will only be used for the purposes you authorized.

When you visit the MVCA site, the web server automatically records the following information:

- The Internet domain and IP address from which you access our site;
- The type of browser and operating system used to access our site;
- The date and time you access our site; and
- The pages you visit.

This information is used to help us monitor and improve the site and to learn about the number of visitors and the types of technology our visitors use. This information is not shared with other organizations.

If you have questions about the Maitland Valley Conservation Authority's web site privacy policy, please contact Phil Beard, MVCA General Manager-Secretary Treasurer at pbeard@mvca.on.ca or 519 335-3557.
